

IVY COMMUNITY CENTER CORPORATION OF ALPHA KAPPA ALPHA SORORITY, INC SPONSORS

The Ivy Community Center (ICC) Corporation of the Alpha Zeta Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. in Durham sponsored an AMAZING KIDS ADVENTURE (AKA) CAMP.

During the two week period, campers participated in a variety of activities centered on learning more about ways in which they might volunteer in their homes and community. Students played games, took field trips, participated in arts and crafts, decorated journals and made daily journal entries around the theme of volunteerism, decorated cup cakes, had french lessons; enjoyed a day at the movies and developed skits and activities to present to their families to show what they learned during the two week camp period.

Chapter members demonstrated volunteerism by directing activities with the campers, Mrs. DeLois Washington and Mrs. Brenda Hall directed the gardening activity with the campers. Mrs. Catherine Ascott, Mrs. Toni Jordan and Mrs. Zephia Watson worked with students on cup cake decorating. Julia Fairley taught a French Lesson on the topic of community volunteers and Mrs. Audrey Boykin directed a concentration game on the topic of volunteerism. Mrs. DeLois Washington and Mrs. Brenda Hall led a gardening activity with students where they learned to care for their plants. Students visited the scrap exchange where they created their own works of art. They learned about services rendered by community agencies. Members of the Durham Fire Department visited the camp site and demonstrated ways in which the department serves the community. Students visited the Durham Scrap Iron exchange where they learned about promoting creativity, environmental awareness, and community through reuse. Students made their own projects while there.

Students decorate cup cakes.

Students participate in gardening project.

Students receive visit from Durham Firefighters.

Students create projects at the Scrap Exchange in Durham.

The Catholic Social Ministries directed an activity with students where they made sandwiches for the Durham Urban Ministries. Students also participated in outdoor recreational activities and games. They also prepared skits and short sketches for a closing program for their parents to demonstrate what they learned during the week. Campers presented notes and letters to volunteers and received certificates of participation. Mrs. Betty Brown was camp director. Ms. Carol Nixon was lead teacher and Ms. Latonya Everett was a camp teacher. Student Counselors also assisted the camp staff. Mrs. Queen Lawrence also assisted as well as chapter members who volunteered during the week. Ms. Julia Fairley, Vice President of the ICC is program chairman.

Dr. Tara Fikes is president of the Ivy Community Center and assisted as well during the week.

